Read this leaflet giving advice on doing your homework. Match headings A-I to paragraphs 1-8. There is one heading you will not need to use.

① _____

It's possible to get your homework done even if you have a busy schedule - if you decide in advance what you have to do. On Sunday or Monday, jot down your activities for the upcoming week in a notebook and then include a time for homework for each day.

② _____

Buy a folder for each of your classes. Divide it into three sections: notes, homework, and tests. Always put papers in the correct section.

③ _____

Forget about doing your homework in front of the TV. Find a quiet place that's well-lit, where you can concentrate without getting distracted.

④ _____

You won't get any work done if you're hungry. Your brain needs energy to work effectively! Drink plenty of water, and snack on some fruit or cookies to get more strength.

⑤ _____

Begin with your best subject. Your success will give you a feeling of satisfaction that will help you deal with your weaker subjects later.

⑥ _____

If you've started your Science homework, finish it! Don't leave one part of your homework unfinished to start another – you may not remember all those Chemistry formulas when you come back.

⑦ _____

Take at least a five-minute break when you feel tired. The rest will re-energise you so you'll be able to finish your work.

⑧ _____

Homework is rarely an exciting thing to do. But it's your top priority, and you have to get it done. Accepting this fact will help you deal with homework effectively.

A Start strong

B Complete each task

C Plan ahead

D Eat for energy

E Just do it!

F Keep things in order

G Talk to an expert

H Take a break

I Find the right place

| 10 | is hoping to improve the lives of others through her present job? | |

A Carol Jackman, chef

Jackman joined the restaurant, Cranberry, eight years ago as a waitress. She soon became restaurant manager before making the big leap into the kitchen. After working under head chef and owner Peter Godden's guidance, she rose to become under-chef. She may be shy and modest (she says she still has a lot to learn), but with her fabulous technique, great organisational ability and impressive creative instincts, her boss says she should go far. During her time at Cranberry, she has also had two children and she feels they have benefited from seeing a mother getting pleasure from her work.

B Sarah Brookes, architect

Brookes set up a business with two friends to design and build a community centre. They then won a competition run by the government to find out more about the effects of architecture on schooling. The firm is currently renovating a school in London. The design will allow flexible, adaptable classrooms and outdoor teaching. Brookes says they hope they will make a difference to the children's lives. Although there is no doubt about that, she worries that she doesn't always do so well fitting her work and her children into her day and that she often puts work first.

C Monika Myles, TV Director

Myles worked as a TV director for four years, then went on to make some award-winning documentaries. She starts filming this week on a big-budget drama for TV but her eventual dream is to make a full-length feature film. She wants to make films that have a message at the end of them. Because she is small and young-looking, she says people initially are unsure about what she is capable of. But when she sees a script, she has a vision and is able to translate it into a moving image. She acknowledges the fact, however, that film-making is also about a team putting their heads together to create a piece of art.
